

Fehily Advisory is a specialist indirect tax advisory practice, led by the well known GST specialist, Ken Fehily, providing independent tax advice to businesses, Government agencies and the visual arts sector on the technical and practical consequences of GST and similar taxes such as LCT, WET and Customs.

No one is better equipped to navigate the tricky area of GST and other tax related issues on your behalf. Fehily Advisory has been established to very deliberately be responsive and practical in its approach, not only 'getting it right', but ensuring that intended benefits are achieved by those it represents. This approach brings a much-needed breath of fresh air to the field of indirect tax consulting.

SYNERGIES OF EXPERIENCE

The alliance between Fehily Advisory and Madgwicks allows you, our clients, to benefit from years of experience amassed by both Ken Fehily and the practitioners at Madgwicks. Drawing from Madgwicks' extensive commercial experience in all legal aspects of owning and operating a business, combined with Ken Fehily's practical approach to providing GST and other indirect tax advice, allows a synergy between legal and advisory that is very unique. Madgwicks' practice in the areas of franchising, corporate law, property, retirement villages and aged care, general business services, banking and finance, estate planning, income tax and international tax, and stamp duty seamlessly align with Fehily Advisory's experience in advising on all aspects of indirect taxation.

REPUTATION

Fehily Advisory's Ken Fehily is a well-respected indirect tax advisor who has developed strong relationships with the Australian Taxation Office and Treasury, and numerous long-term clients, over his 30 plus years of providing advice. Madgwicks' commercial and taxation teams are also renowned for providing sound, practical commercial advice and have excellent relationships with clients across a wide variety of industries. The joint power of Fehily Advisory and Madgwicks means you are dealing directly with experienced practitioners who can negotiate respectfully and appropriately with authorities and other parties. Between us, we have the relationships, the connections, the knowledge and the desire to represent you, and collaborate with you, to achieve the best possible outcomes for you.

CAPABILITY

So you can develop your business to its full potential, you need a team of well-trained, experienced advisors to rely upon. Madgwicks and Fehily Advisory offer you a highly capable team with years of knowledge netted through work on complex commercial and taxation issues. Ken Fehily gained skills as a senior partner at PwC and Arthur Andersen where he worked on many large-scale taxation transactions, as well as advising Treasury and the Australian Taxation Office on the set up and operation of GST. Madgwicks' taxation team of six, includes Partners Dennis Tomaras who has worked for three of the 'big 4' accounting firms in their corporate tax divisions and Michael Norbury, a taxation practitioner for over 25 years with a strong understanding of all legal implications associated with taxation and revenue law. Additionally a much broader team of corporate and commercial lawyers at Madgwicks are available to assist you in all aspects of your business.

RELIABILITY & TRUST

Reliability and trust cannot exist without the other, and are both matters that Fehily Advisory and Madgwicks consider to be non-negotiable when it comes to dealings with their clients. To tailor optimal solutions, we must first fully understand our client's business and real needs. Asking the right questions is just as important as providing the right answers in being a trusted adviser. Additionally we will provide commercial and taxation advice you can trust. We will work with you to achieve your goals and always deliver solutions on time and to our very highest standard, so that you, our clients can benefit from our skills to grow your business.
