

Workplace Relations drinks and the business perspective for 2012

Madgwicks Lawyers is pleased to invite you to join its Workplace Relations Group for drinks to celebrate another year grappling with the day-to-day challenges of managing human resources under Fair Work Australia.

Our special guest Ruth Dunkin, Director of Policy at the Business Council of Australia will make a short presentation about the year ahead in workplace relations. Ruth has specialised in the labour market, workplace relations, healthcare and aged care reform for the past four years.

Madgwicks' Special Counsel Tim Greenall will also take the opportunity to release the results of the firm's Workplace Barometer which surveyed the firm's clients about the workplace relations issues and the outlook for human resources in 2012.

Workplace Relations: Evening Seminar

Wednesday 7 December 2011
5:30pm to 7:00pm

*Madgwicks
Level 33, 140 William St
Melbourne VIC 3000*

To register please contact:

Hayley Smith

T: +61 3 9242 4776

E: events@madgwicks.com.au

by Tuesday 1 December 2011

Please include special dietary requirements

▶ Dr. Ruth Dunkin
Director Policy, Business Council of Australia

Dr Ruth Dunkin has over 30 years experience in the public and higher education sectors and has a strong background and interest in public policy. Ruth has experience in public policy development, evaluation and implementation in the Victorian Public Service in departments such as Treasury, Premiers and Transport. She spent 15 years in the tertiary education sectors as a senior executive, including as Vice Chancellor of RMIT University between 2000 and 2004. Since leaving RMIT Ruth has been involved in policy development and strategy consulting and advisory work for a variety of clients. She has a Masters in Public Administration from Harvard and a PhD in organisational change from the University of Melbourne.

▶ Tim Greenall
Special Counsel, Madgwicks

Tim is a recognised leader in Workplace Relations advising on all aspects of employment law, enterprise bargaining, equal opportunity and occupational health and safety. He acts for employers, executives and insolvency practitioners in a diverse range of industries. He has over 20 years experience as a commercial lawyer, including two years working in the City of London where he completed a Master of Laws at the London School of Economics. Tim is an accredited mediator and brings a strategic approach to the resolution of workplace issues and problems. Tim regularly represents clients at Fair Work Australia and the Courts.